Message from the Parliamentary Library

The Parliamentary Library of South Australia is a Legal Deposit Library.

Section 35 of the South Australian Libraries Act 1982 requires that a copy of all material published in South Australia be lodged with the Library.

For more information please see What are my legal deposit obligations?

Lodgements can be made as per the contact details stated below. We are happy to receive legal deposit submissions in an electronic format, however our preferred file type is PDF. Please forward your pdf document/s to our generic email below, or if you prefer to submit content on a USB then please use our postal or street address listed below:
