

Parliament of South Australia
HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY

CITIZEN'S RIGHT OF REPLY

The House of Assembly has adopted a Standing Order to provide for a Citizen's Right of Reply. The text of the Standing Order is set out below. It provides full detail of the purpose of the Right of Reply, the method by which a citizen can seek redress and the criteria for a right of reply and the procedure the House of Assembly will adopt in consideration and redress of the matter.

The Right of Reply is intended to provide an opportunity for any member of the South Australian community to seek to have adverse references to them made in the course of the proceedings of the House of Assembly corrected in the Hansard (the publicly available transcript of debate). The Standing Order adopted by the House of Assembly sets out the procedure.

Any person ('person' for the purposes of this Standing Order is also taken to include a corporation of any type and an unincorporated association) may make a submission in writing to the Speaker of the House of Assembly –
