Board of Inquiry into Police Force	174	1872—Both.	Report, &c., of Board. Finds inter alia men not entitled or unfit promoted. Senior Sergeant and P.C. Dempsey habitual drunkards with knowledge and connivance of Inspector Bee. Punishment unequal and unjust, with favoritism. Mr. Bee's want of tact diminishes the respect of men. Spying on public-house demoralises Force, and Mr. Bee's appointment as Inspector over heads of men, who consider they had a claim, all proved. The boy Tizzard's case unjustifiable, but not so bad as at first represented, as no intentional cruelty was shown. P.T. O'Neill for opening letters, P.C. Dempsey and Etheridge for drunkenness, L.C. Leahy for forging testimonial, and P.C. Leahy for using them, ought to be got out of the Force. Appendix contains extracts from police records.
