   I. Notes that following the introduction of regulations allowing cycling on footpaths for all bicycle users on 25 October 2015, some sectors in the community, particularly people with vision impairment and blindness, feel vulnerable as they go about their daily routine;
   II. Notes that people with low vision or blindness, or who are hard of hearing or deaf, may be particularly at risk of injury and accident as they may not see nor hear cyclists approaching, especially if cyclists are doing so in an unsafe manner;
   III. Notes that while statistics do not currently support the assertion that pedestrians on footpaths are at higher risk of injury following the change in regulations, the significant divide in community attitude towards these new regulations could see them fail without proper leadership from Government;
   IV. Calls on the State Government to fund a more comprehensive education campaign about the changes to cycling regulations and includes information on sharing the road, shared pathways and footpaths, including recognition of commuters who are at higher risk, including people using mobility aids, people with sensory disabilities, elderly people, young children and those who may be distracted while using technology;
   V. Calls for this campaign to include education of drivers, cyclists and pedestrians, acknowledging that we are all human beings and that we all have rights and responsibilities to our fellow citizens as we proceed about our daily lives;
   VI. Calls on all local, State and Federal Government funded road safety initiatives and bodies in South Australia to include education about the new cycling regulations and the diversity of the community using our roads and footpaths; and VII. Calls on creators to ensure any education campaigns are provided in accessible formats including, but not limited to, audio description, captioning, AUSLAN interpretation and Easy English.

      homosexual acts made on 24 May 2016; and
   II. Calls on the South Australian Government to formally apologise for laws that criminalised homosexuality in the State, acknowledging these laws validated hateful views, ruined people’s lives and forced South Australians to suffer in fear, silence and isolation - (June 8) -
      (The Hon. T. J. Stephens).

71. Adjourned debate on motion of the Hon. T. A. Franks - That this Council -
   I. Notes the February 2016 passage of the federal Narcotic Drugs Amendment Bill 2016 enabling a national licensing scheme for the controlled cultivation across Australia of cannabis for medicinal and scientific purposes;
   II. Notes the April 2016 passage of the Access to Medicinal Cannabis Bill 2015 through the Victorian Parliament which will establish an Office of Medicinal Cannabis and give patients in that state legal, safe and secure access to medical cannabis to those in need; III. Notes medical cannabis law reform could offer both local job opportunities and would ensure that South Australians are no longer forced to choose between suffering needlessly and breaking the law to access medicinal cannabis; and IV. Calls on the South Australian Government to take action on medical cannabis to allow for the production and supply from the farm to the pharmacy - (May 18) - (The Hon. T. J. Stephens).

I. That this Council notes -
(a) The ongoing international concern over the destruction of 90% of Sarawak’s primary rainforest over the last three decades in what former United Kingdom Prime Minister, Gordon Brown, described as “probably the biggest environmental crime of our times”;
(b) The central role of the Governor and former Chief Minister of Sarawak, Taib Mahmud, in that destruction;
(c) The links between Taib Mahmud and South Australia, including -
(i) the awarding to him of an honorary doctorate by the University of Adelaide and naming part of the University’s North Terrace campus in his honour as the “Taib Mahmud, Chief Minister of Sarawak Court” in response to significant donations to the University;

(ii) the ownership of the Adelaide Hilton Hotel by members of Taib Mahmud’s family;

II. That this Council calls on the South Australian Government to -
(a) investigate alleged money laundering activity in South Australia as identified in the Report entitled “THE ADELAIDE HILTON CASE; How a Malaysian politician’s family laundered $30 million in South Australia” produced by Swiss-based environmental organisation, the Bruno Manser Fund, and launched in Adelaide on 9 September 2015;
(b) freeze all assets owned by Taib family members in South Australia, consistent with South Australia’s unexplained wealth legislation, where no credible explanation for the lawful origin of that wealth can be given, with a view to providing restitution to the people of Sarawak;
(c) refer this matter to appropriate Federal Government and law enforcement agencies; and

III. That this Council calls on the University of Adelaide to -
(a) fully disclose all donations received from Taib Mahmud or his family and all contractual obligations arising from those donations;
